

EN 310 : Empathetic Listening, Identity, and Illness

This course brings together the personal, human, and intimate experiences of health and illness as told through personal accounts, fiction, memoirs, essays, poetry, and film with theoretical, scientific, and institutional understandings to create more holistic knowledge of patients' health, illness and, most importantly, identity.

Discipline CM, HU, UL, GE

Credits 3

Prerequisites

EN 115 (or transfer equivalent)