

DMS 231 : Vascular Sonography I

This course will focus on vascular anatomy, vascular physics and instrumentation, hemodynamics, and pathological patterns. Students will become familiar with the clinical symptoms and specific ultrasound protocols for normal and abnormal cases in vascular systems associated with peripheral and cerebrovascular disease.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

All previously required and concurrent courses per the academic plan or with consent of the faculty.