

DMS 240L : Sonography Lab

This course will focus on the physical scanning components of the sonography field. Students will learn scanning techniques correlating with curriculum that is being taught in the classroom. Students will have the opportunity to demonstrate scanning skills on each other and/or phantoms. Students will also be required to comp out on selected sonographic exams.

Credits 1

Prerequisites

DMS all previously required and concurrent courses per the academic plan or with consent of the faculty.