

NUR 103 : Professional Foundations

This course introduces students to concepts basic to nursing practice. Issues and processes related to the professional roles are explored. Self-awareness of personal wellness and the concept of professional wellness are introduced. Students explore individual philosophical beliefs about nursing. This knowledge enables students to begin the process of socialization into professional nursing.

Credits 1

Prerequisites

None