

NUR 443 : Pediatrics

This course provides students with the basis for the collaborative care of patients and their families from infancy through adolescence. The nurse's role in health promotion, disease and injury prevention, and illness and injury management is explored. A population focused approach is integrated throughout the course.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

Developmental Psychology, Adult Nursing Care III