

NUR 485C : Capstone Clinical

This clinical will include experiences similar to those that students will encounter as a newly prepared professional nurse. Students will work with a nurse preceptor in diverse clinical settings, allowing them the opportunity to synthesize professional nursing concepts, engage in collaboration, delegation, and coordination of care as part of the intra- and interdisciplinary team.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

All courses prior to the final semester of the program.